

We advise our clients on claims arising out of tortious liability. We are involved in handling insurance matters for clients both in the public and private sector. We advise and represent our clients before several regulatory bodies and agencies.